

Press release
February 2011

A Good Start to 2011!

Despite the cold and grey weather, here at Ragdale we have had news to warm our cockles and pat our staff on their backs. So far in 2011 we have:

Been voted the Mumsnet Best Spa in the UK Award for the second time "great for a girls day out"

Been voted Runner Up in the Conde Nast Traveller Readers' Spa Awards Favourite UK Spa Retreat 2011 "Ragdale Hall is your favourite for facial and body treatments" (we won this award last year so we will be working hard to regain our crown in 2012!).

Been reassessed for the prestigious Good Spa Guide and have retained the highest possible rating of Five Bubbles.

"Ragdale is a wonderfully positive place...it was worth every moment of our time and so every penny well spent. A special feature are the staff – absolutely nothing is too much trouble and there is always someone on hand to help.

Again and again, this dedicated spa retreat has come up trumps and is still one of our all time favourite places to spa. Unintimidating and charming, sincere and obliging, what is there not to like about Ragdale? It's not trendy or posh, Ragdale isn't about austere, clinical perfection – the vibe is easy-going and carefree, created through a lot of hard work behind the scenes"

"This is a health spa in the true sense of the word, which means you will spend your days in a big fluffy robe, eating nutritious meals and taking part in a mind boggling array of fitness and well-being classes"
