Ragdale Hall bags another award,
it's fourth this year!

Ragdale Hall's latest award has come from the UK's only independent guide to spas, therapies and treatments – www.goodspaguide.co.uk Spas cannot pay for a listing on the Good Spa Guide website – all reviews are independent.

Their Good Spa Spies travel the length and breadth of the UK to provide objective spa reviews for the visitors to their site. Shortlists were put together for this, the first Good Spa Awards, and then the public were asked to vote by telling the guide of their own experiences of the finalists.
