

INTRODUCTION

As we enter the height of the summer, nature gestures us outside.

Warmer weather, sunnier spells and brighter skies make being outdoors feel more inviting than ever. Small changes such as taking your movement and meditation outside can help reconnect to nature and find peace in your surroundings.

Summer at Ragdale Hall sees our exercise classes take place outside. You can take part in one of our Mindful Wild Walking workshops, in which you'll be guided around the grounds of the Hall in groups so you can enjoy low-intensity exercise while being immersed in the luscious Leicestershire landscape.

Indulgent full-body salt scrubs and Sea Magik mud wrap treatments help to remove dry skin and replenish the body with essential moisture, leaving skin nourished and glowing.

Our open-air pools provide a peaceful place from which to enjoy the summer sunshine. Spend time lounging beside our heated Outdoor Pool or relax in our Rooftop Infinity Pool overlooking the sweeping countryside that surrounds the grounds of the Hall.
